

ORIENTATION PROGRAM ON INTERNSHIP, B.E HONOUR MINOR DEGREE AND PLACEMENT TRAINING

Date: 25th October 2023

Venue: B-303 (ME-Dept)

Duration: 9:30 am to 12:30 pm

The orientation was based on the Internship and to give a brief information on BE honours, Minor degree and placements held on 25th October morning at 9:30 am, The students of 5th semester/3rd year of Mechanical Engineering were asked to assemble to brief about the internships, the time allotted for internship, the details of BE honours, steps to be followed to apply for BE honours also the importance of placements and their trainings.

Prof. Rajesh.A the class teacher for upcoming 5th semester/3rd year Mechanical Engineering addressed the students at 9:30 AM for the time duration of 1.30 mins session prof. was asked to brief the students regarding the internship he started explained the students about the internship, the duration of internship, and the procedure to take up the internship. He first started briefing about the internship program which was conducted during the vacations of 2nd and 3rd semester, he also briefed that the students were taught several concepts including MICROSOFT APPLICATIONS SOFT SKILLS and VERBAL ABILITY and also about the live training conducted in the Tinkering laboratory. This internship was conducted for 3 weeks. Then Prof explained how the exams were conducted, the steps involved in completing the internship training.

Then started with next internship which was supposed to be conducted during the vacations of 4th semester and 5th semester. He firstly gave us the importance of taking the upcoming internship then he explains about the types of internships, the process to conducted the internship .he told the students that the internship is for 4 weeks duration in which the students must take their own choice of either ENTREPRENEURSHIP BASED INTERNSHIP or INNOVATION

BASED INTERNSHIP or SOCIETAL BASED INTERNSHIP. These 3 choice internship must be conducted in any of the well-recognized industry in and around Bangalore and he told that at the end of the semester the students to submit the internship report as well as the internship certificate for 4 weeks duration, he also told that students interested in foreign languages can take up their choice, the foreign languages internship must be taken for one week ,the students who are taking the foreign language internship for one week their industry internship must be for the duration of 3 weeks.

He also briefed the students the total number of credits allotted for this internship and how important to take up there examination.

Finally, he also explained about the upcoming internship at the vacations of 6 semester and 7 semesters, this internship was of 24 credits which will be the most important internship upcoming examination. he also told that this internship must be conducted in any of the high rated MNC companies which will help there placements he also expressed the importance of this main internship which is supposed to be conducted during the vacations of 6 semester and 7 semesters, will be also considered for the final exam validation.

After Prof. Rajesh.A finishing the session then Prof.Raghu tilak of Mechanical Engineering start briefing about the BE honours the steps involved in applying BE honours the importance of BE honours the eligibility criteria for applying these honours he very clearly showed us the demo for applying the honours with help of a presentation he showed how to create an account and how to fill the required details for applying the be honours

At last Prof.Bopanna K.D give a brief introduction of the placements how important placements power he told that the training will be started and continued from semester he also very clearly explained that the students are supposed to attend the placement training session regularly which helps students getting placed.

